THE PARAGRAPHS OF THE CONSTITUTION

1. NAME AND IDENTITY

The name of the Union shall be Loughborough Students' Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union). The Union is the Students' Union of Loughborough University (hereinafter referred to as the University) referred to in the Statutes and Loughborough College (hereinafter referred to as the College).

2. OBJECTS AND POWERS

- a. The Union's objects are the advancement of education of Students at the University and College for the public benefit by:
 - i. Enriching and enhancing the educational experience of its members as people as well as intellectuals, and in particular, to provide opportunities for members to develop their personal maturity, leadership, and communications and other skills.
 - ii. Acting as the principal body representing its members' views and interests within their institutions, to the local community and nationally.
 - iii. Enhancing the student community and student wellbeing by providing social, cultural, sporting and recreational activities, and forums for discussions and debate.
 - iv. To ensure that students experiencing problems with student life can get the support and help they need and seek to minimise the likelihood of these problems occurring.
- b. To further its objects, but not to further any other purpose, the Union may:
 - i. Provide services and facilities for members.
 - ii. Establish, support, promote and operate a network of student activities for members.
 - iii. Support any Rag of similar fundraising activities carried out by its members for charitable causes, including, the provision of administrative support, banking facilities and acting as a holding trustee of the any funds raised.
 - iv. Alone or with other organisations
 - a) Carry out campaigning activities.
 - b) Seek to influence public opinion
 - c) Make representation to and seek to influence governmental and other bodies and institutions regarding the reform, development and implementation of the appropriate policies, legislation and regulations provided that all such activities shall be confined to the activities which an English and Welsh charity may properly undertake and provided that the Union complies with the 1994

Education Act and any guidance published by the Charity Commission.

- v. Write, make, commission, print, publish or distribute materials or information or assist in these activities.
- vi. Promote, initiate, develop or carry out education and training and arrange, provide or assist with exhibitions, lectures, meetings, seminars, displays or classes.
- vii. Promote, encourage, carry out or commission research, surveys studies or other work and publish the useful results.
- viii. Provide or appoint others to provide advice, guidance, representation and advocacy.
- ix. Co-operate with other charities and bodies and exchange information and advice with them.
- x. Become a member, affiliate or associate of other charities and bodies.
- xi. Support, setup or amalgamate with other charities with objects identical or similar to the Union's objects, and act as or appoint trustees, agents, nominees or delegates to control and manage such charities.
- xii. Purchase or acquire all or any of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of any charity with objects similar to the Union's objects.
- xiii. Incorporate and transfer all its assets to a charitable limited liability legal entity, and dissolve at any time following such incorporation and transfer if the Trustees consider it appropriate to do so.
- xiv. Raise funds and invite and receive contributions from any person provided that the Union shall not carry our taxable trading activities in raising funds.
- xv. Borrow and raise money on such terms and security as the Union may think suitable (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act 1993).
- xvi. Purchase, lease, hire or receive property of any kind including land, buildings and equipment and maintain and equip it for use.
- xvii. Sell, manage, lease, mortgage, exchange, dispose of or deal with all or any of its property (but only in accordance with the restrictions imposed by the Charities Act 1993).
- xviii. Make grants or loans of money and give guarantees.
- xix. Set aside funds for special purposes or as reserves against future expenditure.
- xx. Invest and deal with the Union's money not immediately required for its objects in or upon any investment, security, or property.
- xxi. Delegate the management of investments to an appropriately experienced and qualified financial expert provided that:
 - a) The investment policy is set down in writing form the financial expert by the Trustees.
 - b) Every transaction is reported promptly to the Trustees.

- c) The performance of the investment is reviewed regularly by the Trustees.
 - d) The Trustees are entitled to cancel the delegation at any time.
 - e) The investment policy and the delegation arrangements are reviewed at least once a year.
 - f) All payments due to the financial expert are on a scale or at a level which is agreed in advance and are notified promptly to the Trustees on receipt.
 - g) The financial expert may not do anything outside the powers of the Trustees.
- xxii. Arrange for investment or other property of the Union to be held in the name of a nominee (being a company or a limited liability partnership registered or having an established place of business in England and Wales) under the control of the Trustees or a financial expert acting under their instructions and to pay any reasonable fee required.
 - xxiii. Lend money and give credit to, take security for such loans or credit and guarantee or give security for the performance of contracts by any person or company.
 - xxiv. Open and operate banking accounts and other facilities for banking and draw, accept, endorse, negotiate, discount, issue or execute negotiable instruments such as promissory notes or bills of exchange.
 - xxv. Trade in the course of carrying out any of its objects.
 - xxvi. Establish or acquire subsidiary companies to carry on any taxable trade.
 - xxvii. Subject to Paragraph 22 (Limitation on private benefits), employ and pay employees and professionals or other advisors.
 - xxviii. Grant pensions and retirement benefits to employees of the Union and to their dependants and subscribe to funds or schemes for providing pensions and retirement benefits for employees of the Union and their dependants.
 - xxix. Pay out of the funds of the Union the cost of any premium in respect of any indemnity insurance to cover the liability of the Trustees (or any of them) which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to them in respect of any negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty of which they may be guilty in relation to the Union provided that no such insurance shall extend to:
 - a) Any claim arising from any liability incurred by the Trustees to pay a fine imposed in criminal proceedings or a sum payable to a regulatory authority by way of a penalty in respect of non-compliance with any requirement of a regulatory nature (however arising).
 - b) Any liability incurred by the Trustees in defending any criminal proceedings in which the Trustees are convicted of an offence arising out of any fraud or dishonesty, or willful or reckless misconduct.

- c) Any liability incurred by the Trustees to the Union that arises out of any conduct which the Trustees knew (or must reasonably be assumed to have known) was not in the interests of the Union or in the case of which they did not care whether it was in the best interests of the Union or not.

xxx. Do all such other lawful things as shall further the Union's objects.

- c. The Union aims to do this through an open and democratic structure, effective communication with our membership, with emphasis on continual improvement to all our services. Fulfilment of these objectives will thereby enhance the reputation of the institutions with prospective students, potential employers and the local community.
- d. The objectives should be pursued without regard to age, race, gender, sexual orientation, disability, ethnic origin, religion or creed and independent of any party-political organisation or religious body.

 - v. To resolve any day to day conflicts.
 - vi. Minutes should be published on the Union Website.
- f. The Institutional Representative Officers will be invited to attend meetings of the Executive Committee.
- g. Full members of the Union may attend the Executive Committee meetings by invitations from the committee. The decision to allow a full member of the Union to attend an Executive committee meeting will be decided by a simple majority vote by the voting members of committee.
- h. The Executive Committee may call on such advisers as it sees fit.
- i. The new Executive Committee and its members shall take full office for one calendar year from the last day of handover, immediately following their election.

11. PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT AND DISCIPLINE OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND SENIOR STAFF

- a. The Board will appoint a Performance Sub-committee with the role of reviewing the performance of the Executive Officers and the Senior Staff member.
 - i. This Sub-committee will be chaired by the President and will include the Chair of the Board (ex officio) along with three Board members.
- b. At all times the emphasis should be on taking actions that will assist Executive Officers in being successful in their role and this should follow best human resource practice as far as compatible with the democratic context.
- c. If, the Student Forum, an Executive Officer's committee, the Union Affairs Committee, or the Executive Committee feel that an Executive Officer is significantly underperforming in their role they should refer the matter to the Performance Management Sub-committee for appropriate action. They should always afford the Officer in question a full opportunity to put across their side of the case.

- d. When the Performance Management Sub-committee believes that an Officer has irreversibly lost the confidence of the Union's full members and their continued holding of office is no longer in the interests of the Union they shall have the power to dismiss the Officer.
- e. An Officer may appeal to the full Board and will be deemed to have resigned if less than 33% of those eligible to vote support the Officer's motion of confidence.
- f. Where the Officers is a sabbatical, arrangements for notice and compensation will be set out in the Officer's contract of employment as periodically reviewed and approved by the Board.
- g. The President will be advised on the direction and performance management of the Senior Staff Member by the Chair of the Board.

12. REFERENDUM

- a. A referendum may be called on issues of such importance that the Board feels that the views of all members should be formally sought. The referendum will be run in accordance with Standing Order B.
- b. The outcome will be taken full account of by the Executive Committee and the Board.

13. CONSTITUENT EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES

- a. There will be a Constituent Committee for the college, which discuss matters relating to it constituents, particularly academic affairs in relation to the objectives of the Union. They will act as a direct line of communication between the Constituent College members and the Executive Committee.
- b. The Constituent Committee shall run in accordance with Schedule III and Schedule IV.

14. SECTIONS

- a. The sections of the Union shall undertake and direct an area of work which is fundamental to achieving the core objectives of the Union. This work will be led by a designated member of the Executive Committee as set out in the relevant Schedules of the Constitution.
- b. They will be allocated appropriate resources to undertake this work by the Board.
- c. Plans will be approved by the Board taking full account of the views of the volunteers involved in these areas expressed through their respective democratic structures.

15. CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

- a. The Union shall provide clubs and societies which promote the sporting, recreational and cultural interests of its members. They shall receive funding in accordance with the University Statutes arising from law.

- b. A club or society shall be affiliated to the Union when the Union Affairs Committee approves its application for affiliation and initial code of practice. The procedure for this is subject to change following periodic review by the Union Affairs Committee.
- c. An affiliated club or society must use the name Loughborough Students' in its official title. As a subservient part of the Union the club or society is a Charity and subject to charity law. Each club or society must comply with the mission statement, health and safety and financial policies currently set by the Board.
- d. On the disbanding or inactivity of a club or society for more than one year, funds and assets from that club or society are returned to central Union funds.
- e. No club or society may enter into any contract, loan or other legally binding arrangement. All such arrangements must be undertaken by the Union on the club or society's behalf.
- f. Each club or society shall be governed by the rules laid out in Schedule VIII and Schedule XI

16. ASSOCIATIONS

- a. Associations of the Union will promote the interests of under-represented groups with the student membership. Any full member who falls within the category of one of these groups automatically become a member of that Association.
- b. Each Association will elect a committee to plan and implement programs of activity to promote the interests of its members.
- c. The Associations will meet regularly and make policy recommendations through Student Forum.
- d. Associations may be established and dissolved by the Board on the recommendation of the Union Affairs Committee.
- e. Meetings of Associations will be open only to members of the Association and the representatives of the Executive Committee designated to sit on the Associations' Committee.
- f. The Associations will run in accordance with the Schedules of this Constitution.

17. REMOVAL OF UNION COMMITTEE MEMBERS

- a. Any elected full member of a Union Committee (except for the Executive Committee), or other body who fails to attend two consecutive meetings without offering a written explanation to the Chair, which is then accepted by the meeting, shall normally be deemed to have resigned and there shall be casual vacancy.

18. CASUAL VACANCIES

- a. In the case of any officer of the Union ceasing to hold office before the end of the stipulated term, there shall be a casual vacancy.
- b. Casual vacancies shall be filled in accordance with Schedule III.

19. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION, PARAGRAPHS, STANDING ORDERS AND SCHEDULES

- a. The Board and Constituent Colleges shall review this Constitution every five years, with effect from the date that this constitution comes into effect.
- b. No amendment of this Constitution shall be made which would have the effect of the Union ceasing to be a Charity.
- c. Paragraph 2, (Objects and Powers) and Paragraph 22, (Limitation on Private Benefit) may not be amended without the prior written consent of the Charity Commission.
- d. Save where the amendment to the Constitution is a consequential amendment due to a change in the Schedules (for example, the number or heading name of Clauses), the Constitution may be amended by:
 - i. Proposed amendments to the core Paragraphs of this Constitution will be drafted and approved by the Union Affairs Committee. They must then be passed by the Board before adoption.
 - ii. Following such amendments being passed, a member of the Executive Committee shall inform the Chief Executive Officers of the constituent colleges to seek their approval of the changes in accordance with the 1994 Education Act.
 - iii. The Constitutional change will then be referred back to the Board for confirmation of any minor amendments proposed by Constituent Colleges and final approval; a simple majority will be required at this stage.
- e. No amendment to the Constitution will be valid until this procedure has been completed.
- f. Changes to the Standing Orders and Schedules may be made following a two-thirds majority at the Union Affairs Committee and final approval from the Board.

20. FINANCE AND INDEMNITY

- a. The Board will be responsible for the proper management of Union finances and resources.
- b. The Executive Officer responsible for finance shall present outline financial budgets to the Board by the end of March for the following financial year and by November they will present a revision, detailing the allocation of funds to all areas of Union activity.
- c. The Executive Committee will ensure that all Union funds are properly recorded and accounted for and that all spending is duly authorised in line with the budgets approved by the Board.
- d. The Executive shall publish annually the criteria used to allocate funding and grants to clubs, societies, and associations. This information is to be made available to all students upon request.
- e. The Board may authorise the Union taking out such unsecured loans or overdrafts as it sees fit in the effective management of the Union's business.
- f. Every Trustee, Officer, appointee or member of Union staff shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Union against all losses or liability which they may sustain or incur, in or about, the lawful and proper execution of their office. No Trustee, Officer, appointee or member of Union staff shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may be incurred by the Union in the execution of the duties of their office, provided that nothing in this Clause shall affect their liability for the consequences of any unconstitutional, negligent or unlawful act on their part.

21. STUDENT REPRESENTATION

- a. All student representatives on Institutional Committees must be registered students of that institution or sabbatical officers of the Union who have studied at that institution.
- b. Should any student representative be unable to attend an Institutional Committee due to academic commitments or incapacity through illness another elected representative may attend in their place.

22. LIMITATION ON PRIVATE BENEFITS

- a. The income and property of the Union shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects.
- b. Except as provided below no part of the income and property of the Union may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the Union. This shall not prevent any payment in good faith by the Union of:
 - i. Any payment made to any member in their capacity as a beneficiary of the Union;
 - ii. Reasonable and proper remuneration to any member for any goods or services supplied to the Union provided that if such member is a Trustee Paragraph 7c iii shall apply;
 - iii. Interest on money lent by any member of the Union at a reasonable and proper rate; and
 - iv. Any reasonable and proper rent for premises let by any member of the Union.
- c. Except as provided below no Trustee may sell goods, services or any interest in land to the Union; be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Union; or receive any other financial benefit from the Union. This shall not prevent any payment in good faith by the Union of:
 - i. Any payments made to any Trustee or Connected Person in their capacity as a beneficiary of the Union.
 - ii. Reasonable and proper out of pocket expenses of the Trustees.
 - iii. Reasonable and proper remuneration to any Officer, Trustee or Connected Person for any goods of services supplied to the Union on the instructions of the Trustees provided that:

- a) For the avoidance of doubt, the authorisation under this provision shall extend to the remuneration of Officer Trustees and Connected Persons under contracts of employment with the Union; although the authorisation under this provision shall not extend to the service of acting as Trustee.
- b) If the person being remunerated is a Trustee, they must give due consideration to the need to avoid conflicts of interest in relation to any decisions regarding the remuneration authorised by this provision.
- c) This provision may not apply to more than half of the Trustees in any financial year (and for these purposes such provision shall be treated as applying to a Trustee if it applies to a person who is a Connected Person in relation to that Trustee).
- d) At all times the provisions of the Education Act are complied with.
- d. Interest on money lent by any Trustee or Connected Person to the Union at a reasonable and proper rate.
- e. Any reasonable and proper rent for premises let by any Trustee or Connected Person to the Union.
- f. Reasonable and proper premiums in respect of indemnity insurance effected in accordance with Clause b
- g. Any payments made to any Trustee or Officer under the indemnity provision set out at Paragraph 2of.
- h. Any payment authorised in writing by the Charity Commission.
- i. In Clause b and Clause c, reference to the Union shall be read as references to the Union and/or subsidiary company.
- j. For any transaction authorised by Clause c [or Clause i], the Trustee's duty (arising under the Companies Act 2006) to avoid a conflict of interest with the Union shall be dis-applied provided the relevant provisions of Clause c [or Clause i] have been complied with.
- k. Where a vacancy arises on the Board with the result that Paragraph 22b ii applies to more than half of the Trustees, the Union may continue to pay remuneration to its Officer Trustees and any Connected Persons receiving remuneration in accordance with Paragraph 10 provided that the Union uses all reasonable endeavours to fill the vacancy as soon as possible.

23. DISSOLUTION

If any property remains after the Union has been wound up or dissolved and all debts and liabilities have been satisfied, it shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Union. It shall instead be given or transferred to some other charitable institution or institutions having similar objects to those of the Union and which prohibits the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as this Constitution imposes upon the Union. The institution or institutions which are to benefit shall be chosen by the Trustees of the Union at or before the time of winding up or dissolution.

24. STANDING ORDERS AND SCHEDULES

- a. Standing Orders and Schedules which will form a subsidiary part of the Constitution as complimentary instruments.
- b. Nothing in the Standing Orders or Schedules shall have the power to supersede or override the Paragraphs of this Constitution. The Standing Orders and Schedules may be amended by the process set out in Paragraph 19.
